Set on this highly regarded small development of homes, this property was originally built by the reputed local builders Moody Homes. These well designed family homes over look a picturesque pond with local wildlife whilst being very close to Millfields Primary School, shops, waterfront/Quay and the all important mainline railway station with services to Colchester and onwards along the A12 corridor to London's Liverpool Street Station.

This well planned property is set out over two levels. The ground floor hallway opens to a welcoming living room with a fire surround and fire being the main focal point, whilst French doors open to the garden and provide light. The kitchen/diner is well appointed with ample room for family get togethers, whist a utility room, cloakroom and study/office provide for those every day needs.

The first floor landing opens to all the bedrooms with the principal bedroom boasting the all important En-suite shower room. Three other bedrooms and a four piece family bathroom cater for the larger family and/or friends and relatives to be put up comfortably.

Outside the property is nestled in a lovely position with an attractive front garden area and enclosed sizeable rear garden providing a safe environment for children to play.

A driveway and garage can be found to the rear with access from Rectory Road.
